

Nicholas, Paige, Sienna, & Lucas

Dear friend,

We “meet” as strangers but call you our friend because we are beyond grateful for you. Your bravery is nothing we have experienced and by choosing life you will always be beautiful to us. Due to our journey with infertility, adoption will be the gift that allows us to complete our family.

We can say with our whole hearts that if you choose to let us love and care for your baby that we will cherish your baby fiercely. We love fiercely because God first loved us. And God loves you. If you choose us, you will be a part of our family forever.

Sincerely, Nicholas & Paige

Meet Nicholas

Words By Paige

Nick is the most patient person I have ever met. If the kids take forever to get their shoes, Nick jumps in and patiently helps them. He puts others before himself. He is an amazing father and my best friend.

Nick works in IT from home. Nick is an avid soccer player and cannot wait to teach your baby all the things he loves. Nick will teach your baby to always be themselves. He will love, protect and do anything for them. He is full of life and he will for sure make them laugh. I have not stopped laughing since I met him. I cannot wait to see him cuddling your baby while reading to them.

Paige loves being a stay at home mom and letting the kids explore their creative side. I remember coming home to to the kids covered head to toe in finger paint and Paige made a huge bubble bath for them.

She always cheers me and the kids on and encourages us. Her go-getter attitude has impressed me from the start and has helped us achieve big goals together.

She is a genius at planning ahead, especially for vacations. Every zoo, beach or even outings, Paige makes sure and has snacks, drinks, and surprises for the kids. She does such a wonderful job of keeping up our home and loving the kids well.

Paige is a great cook, and exceptional mother. I love seeing Paige play on the floor with the kids. Paige and I cannot wait to love on your baby.

We live on the end of a street, which allows the kids to side their bike & tricycle. There is numerous parks close by that we visit all the time.

After dinner, we take the kids for a ride in their Radio Flyer. Some nights we lounge on the sofa and watch a Disney movies.

On weekends during the spring and summer, we often visit the beach which is only three hours away. On other weekends, we enjoy jumping on the trampoline, playing tag, soccer or gardening.

We love to make a big deal out of Christmas. We always wait until the kids are down and set up multiple toys and displays. Then we cuddle up by the Christmas tree.

We Promise...

We promise that we will love your child with all of our hearts and that your child will be raised in a home full of love and laughter.

If you choose us, we promise your child will always know the love and courage of his/her biological family. We will share with your child any information about you or your family that you wish.

We can only imagine how difficult it is to select a family for your baby. We promise to document all of the little moments and share pictures and updates with you if this is what you want.

We have been praying that God will give you peace when you find the right family. We understand the love that overwhelms you as you carry a child and want the very best for you.

We have been so blessed by adoption and can't wait to love another child. Adoption has already blessed our house once by making us parents to the most amazing little boy, Lucas. If you choose us, your child will share the special bond of adoption with their older brother.

We once heard a quote and it stuck with us, "There is no woman in the world more beautiful than the one that gives birth to your child."

We were very touched by this and we completely agree.

There are so many families out there who are looking for a child to adopt.
