Hello, it's so nice to meet you!

Thank you for taking the time to read our profile. We sincerely appreciate your courage to select adoption and hope that we can provide you with a sense of ease when making your decision. Please know that this is a dream of ours and it would be an honor to be selected as parents. We hope that you enjoy reading about us as much as we enjoyed taking the time to put this together for you. Thank you again for your time and consideration.

With All Our Love,
Christina & Heather

This Is Us

We were both born and raised in Wisconsin and currently reside near Nevada.

We met in 2015 through an online dating app, and became inseparable shortly after that. Christina's most loved trait of Heather is her patience and hard work ethic. Heather's most loved trait of Christina is her loyalty and dedication.

Christina is an Occupational Therapist for a rehab facility and Heather is an Account Manager for an interior design furniture company.

Since we were both born and raised in the Midwest we have a very strong bond to family and friends. We are very loyal to not only one another but to everyone we come in contact with.

Our friends and family would describe us as a very outgoing and loving couple. We complement one another very well as Christina tends to be more extroverted and Heather to be more introverted.

We cannot wait for you to get to know us better!!

Please Enjoy :)

Why Adoption

We think adoption is right for us because we have always wanted a family of our own.

After being through 3 rounds of IVF and having all 3 end in miscarriages we have both leaned on one another and know that we can get through anything.

After additional discussions with our doctor, what we really want is to give a child a loving home.

We have since then taken the time to heal mentally and physically and cannot wait to welcome home a child of our own that we have both been longing for.

Things we plan to do as a family

We Promise

We would like to take this opportunity to let you know our promise to you and our promise to our child.

We promise to provide nothing but a loving home with dignity and respect.

We promise to not only shelter our child, but provide them with love and support and let them be who they want to be.

We promise to talk openly about our adoption and never let our child forget where they came from.

We promise to carry on not only our family traditions, but the traditions our child's background.

And most importantly, we promise to do our best as parents. We are not perfect and we will make mistakes, but together we will be the best family we can be.
