OUR STORY

Chloe and Eddie
Our Love Story

When Eddie was on stage helping with his best friend’s college music recital, Chloe showed up to help with her best friend, (who was dating Eddie’s friend at the time). Eddie and Chloe met, played it cool, but had both instantly fallen in love. A couple weeks later they met once again at a movie marathon, and spent all evening talking about the world around them, big plans for the future, and how they might fit into it with each other. Before the night ended, they kissed. They married on Halloween, with all attendants rocking costumes.

Our Lifestyle

We try to make the most of each and every day, whether it is an active day out or a casual one at home together. He works from home for the software industry, creating tools to educate kids, and she is recently “retired” and ready to be a full time mom. We love to explore everything Las Vegas has to offer – and there’s a lot to do here! From the Strip’s technologically immersive experiences to the majestic Red Rock Mountains, we love to see where the day might take us.

WHAT WE DO FOR FUN IS WHAT WE DO FOR LIFE

Doing all the things

ADVENTURE AND LEARNING ARE A BIG PART OF WHO WE ARE
I fell in love with Chloe from the moment she blasted me with that bright smile. She's brilliant and insightful and I always learn something new in whatever topic we're in the middle of (whether it's culture, people, art, music... I could go on and on).

Chloe's delightfully whimsical and knows how to have fun no matter where we go, and no matter the language being spoken at the destination. I feel lucky to be waking up next to her every day.

I've never met anyone more empathetic, and it drives her soul. I can always depend on Chloe knowing the most loving and caring course of action, and you can find her volunteering to help her fellow human as time permits. She has this magical ability to talk to kids on their level, even getting discussions out of them where their parents haven't.

She'd worked many years in artificial intelligence and has recently become a stay-at-home wife, anticipating becoming a stay-at-home mom. I can't imagine anyone out there better for the job.

About Chloe
By Eddie

SHE ALWAYS SAYS “YES” TO NEW ADVENTURES.

She makes me a better man.

The room lights up when she walks in.

Never a dull moment when she's leading the way.
Eddie is an incredible person and the love of my life. I have no doubt that his kindness, generosity, care, thoughtfulness, and great sense of humor will make him an excellent father.

Eddie has a heart of gold and is ever-ready to lend a hand, even at his own expense. He is someone I can turn to for a listening ear or a big bear hug. He is consistently there for his friends and family, without hesitation. He is generous with his time, resources, and attention, and often reaches out to those around him with kindness.

With a great sense of humor, Eddie is the life of the party and knows how to make others laugh. His friendly demeanor and infectious positivity make him a hit with everyone he meets, and his encouragement puts everyone at ease. I love being by his side as we explore our city, and witness all the smiles he puts on strangers (and brand new friends’ faces).

He is an excellent friend and a great host, ensuring that his guests are comfortable, happy, and well-fed. I find his unique qualities charming and am grateful for him every day.

WE HAVE TRAVELED THE WORLD TOGETHER...

AND WE STILL LIKE EACH OTHER AND ARE READY FOR MORE!
Our Traditions

At least once a month we host a big friend gathering! Eddie is an exceptional chef, and uses his talents to feed our neighbors and friends, and has even been told he makes the best tacos in Vegas. We attribute that to his huge Mexican family and their constant cooking corrections, ha! We host Friendsgiving, our family’s Christmas pajama brunch, and have the most popular house on Halloween! (Full-sized candy bars, y’all). We host watch parties for the Oscars, like dressing up fancy, and open up our pool on the hottest summer afternoons. Never a day goes by that we’re not planning the next event to get our family and friends together and share hugs, stories, and ahem… food.

Meet our furry Family

We have two old and adorable snuggle monsters. They believe that this is their house, and we’re just guests! Try to tell them otherwise and they’ll just meow loudly at you. They cannot wait to have a tiny human to warm up and snuggle with. Say hello to Kaga and Kenichi!
Our home is warm, bright, and fun! To our surprise, the previous owners adopted and fostered over a dozen kids here! The energy is magical.

Two stories of cozy corners, and plenty of rooms to play hide-and-seek. We intend to keep growing our family with two available extra bedrooms. We're keen on seasonal decoration, and Chloe makes much of it herself.

We're at the end of a cul-de-sac in a diverse neighborhood with incredibly friendly and welcoming neighbors and kids. We block off the street and celebrate the summer holidays.

There is a big yard (soon to be with a playground) and a pool we enjoy during the hot months, which is most of the year. Within a short distance are elementary schools, huge parks, and a hospital.

Our wonderful Las Vegas community is vibrant, safe, and full of world culture.
Our respective families are outgoing, caring, and supportive, and we’ve become one big family. “Big” is an understatement, we’re nearly 70 strong in all generations and ages! (Eddie’s grandmother is a great-great grandmother).

Our immediate families are mostly all located south of the San Francisco Bay Area, in San Jose and its suburbs. A couple are in other parts of the country, but that doesn’t stop us or them from visiting frequently.

Throughout the year we are getting together for the big holidays or make up an excuse to have an all-day BBQ. We go on family trips to other parts of the country and world, often without an agenda and see where the roads take us.

When they come here to Vegas, we are sure to show them all the hidden gems throughout the city and nature. We can’t wait to take family trips with our future children, learn about the world, and ultimately have fun!
As potential parents we share the same top priority, which is to provide your child with a life full of opportunities for education, adventure, creativity, love, and wonder.

We are committed to helping them discover and develop their unique talents and interests based on their own natural curiosity, while also teaching them important values such as honesty, generosity, kindness, self-respect, and resilience in the face of challenges.

We will be there with wide open hearts to share in life’s joy and laughter and support them through its difficulties.

Above all, we want your child to know that they are loved unconditionally and have a bright and exciting future ahead of them.

Thank you for reading our book and we hope to work together to give your child the best possible foundation in life.
