Sarah and Joe

We’re Sarah and Joe! We’ve been together since January 11th, 2010 and got married on our six year anniversary in 2016. We live in a small town called Hanover Township in Northeast Pennsylvania with our 7 year old Jack Russell/Pug Sadie.

“Never let the odds keep you from doing what you know in your heart you were meant to do.” — H. Jackson Brown, Jr.
Joe

I grew up in Nanticoke, Pennsylvania with my mom, dad and two sisters. I am a big wrestling fan. My favorite band is Creed. I work as a manager of a local grocery store’s beer/wine cafe. My dad also works with me. My wife Sarah is my best friend and I love that she is family oriented and a hard worker.
I was born and raised in Trucksville, Pennsylvania, a town so small it does not have its own zip code. I grew up with two loving parents and my little sister Elizabeth. My mother moved here from England to start a family with my dad, and we have visited England several times over the years. I received my bachelor’s degree in Communications. I love animals, especially llamas and rabbits. I am an underwriter at an insurance company. My husband is passionate, loyal, hardworking and I know he will be a great father!
Sadie
Our Best Friend

Sadie loves people and has a lot of energy! Her hobbies are going outside for walks, playing with bones/toys and snuggling under covers. She is also very protective of Joe and Sarah’s grandma. She is excited to meet her future brother or sister.
Why Adoption?

We always wanted to be parents, however over the years we slowly began to realize that having children naturally may not be the best option. Joe was born with a congenital heart defect and had to have major heart surgery at age 26. Although we do not know much about his birth parents, a lot of his health problems may be genetic.

Joe and both of his sisters are adopted. While he was adopted through the foster care system, he was eager to learn that these kinds of adoptions hold a more positive experience for both the mother and the child. We decided to go through the process of adopting because we believe we can provide a good, stable home while also having a semi open relationship with you, the birth mother. We respect your decision to place your child for adoption and we promise to provide a loving, supportive and stable home for them. We will provide them with any information you are comfortable with and keep communication with you during and after your pregnancy.
Our Family

We are both blessed to have an amazing, supportive family! Family is very important to us! Joe’s parents live less than a mile away and my grandma and dad live about 20 minutes from our house. On holidays we visit both sides of the family. My sister currently lives in Pittsburgh with her fiance, and we video call every other Sunday to keep in touch.
Thank you!

Thank you so much for taking the time to read our book! We promise to provide your child unconditional love, support and knowledge to grow and be the person they were meant to be. We promise to tell them stories (whatever you are comfortable with) about you and remind them that they were loved by you first. We hope you can find it in your heart to choose us to raise your child.
